I wake up in the morning by the coffee I can smell
 My working day is easy, anyone can tell I like to do it better, I like to do it well
 but I always fail

I do a lot of thinking, well that might not be seen I'm working on the geeky code on my computer screen
 I like to do it better, I like to do it well
 but I always fail

C	Am

The days are filled with household shores, they will never end
 In between I rush to have a meeting with a friend
 I like to do it better, I like to do it well but I'm always late

My children tell me mama yeah you suck you are no good but later on they try to brighten up the mood say you can do it better, you can do it well
 but I always fail

C	Am	2x
G	Fmaj7	(slow down)

I always fail, I always fail my daughter comes to me and she says
 Mama,

Dm - G	Dm - Am
Am - G	Em - Am
Am - G	Dm - Am
Am - G	Em - Am

You hold on, same as you did before Hold on, you're heading for some more She whispers slowly, whispers sweet Hold on, and bring it on

Am	Am	G	Am	(solo)

For months now I've been applying for a job
 But I'm far too old - the rejections never stop I have to try harder, I have to do it well
 but I always fail
